Donate, Legislate, Educate: Support JNCL-NCLIS's Vital Work for Language Education

Donating to JNCL-NCLIS is an investment in a more interconnected, understanding, and inclusive world that values and uplifts multilingualism and intercultural competency.

Who We Are

JNCL-NCLIS's work to safeguard and expand equitable language learning opportunities for all continues to be essential now more than ever. Consistent and effective advocacy for federal and state language education policy and programs is key to moving our nation forward. It is only through this focused work, at the heart of the JNCL-NCLIS mission, that we can ensure multilingualism is recognized and valued as an asset and a strength for all learners.
